Attention: Mr. Laszlo Bodor

Dear Laszlo,

We write to acknowledge the valued service we have received from B & L Painting.

B & L Painting has completed the repainting of two of our largest industrial buildings in our portfolio.

What makes for a successful project? Managing schedule, budget and quality without compromising any of these elements, would be our response.

Both projects were completed successfully in a timely manner, within budget and with results that improved the value and appearance of our real estate.

Thank-you for your efforts and we look forward to working with B & L Painting to achieve similar results in the future.

Yours very truly,
B.U.K. REALTY CORPORATION
